

Media Release

8 April 2016

BSA welcomes new Chief Executive

The Broadcasting Standards Authority is delighted to announce the appointment of Belinda Moffat as its new Chief Executive.

Belinda joins the BSA having most recently held the position of Director of Enforcement and Investigations at the Financial Markets Authority.

Belinda has a legal background and brings extensive professional experience from roles in the public and private sector.

The Chair of the BSA, Peter Radich, welcomes the appointment of Belinda.

'We are delighted to welcome Belinda to the BSA. She joins us to lead the BSA at a time when the sector is facing dynamic change and convergence'.

Belinda joins the team in May.

The Board thanks outgoing CEO Karen Scott-Howman for her contribution to the BSA and wishes her well for her return to the NZBA.

ENDS

For more information contact Morgan Coats on 021 072 8280.

ABOUT THE BROADCASTING STANDARDS AUTHORITY

The Broadcasting Standards Authority is an independent body that oversees the broadcasting standards regime in New Zealand. We do this by determining complaints that broadcasts have breached standards, by doing research and also by providing information about broadcasting standards.

For more information see our website: www.bsa.govt.nz.